

Annex 2a: Tables for Options all Telephone Survey

Custom Tables: Q1 - Q10 sorted by descending order of "Yes%" (Without consideration of how much land will be generated)

Q_group Q_group: Respondents by total amount of land in hectre they selected (Total)

	1 Yes	2 No	8 No comment / Didn't know / Hard to tell / Refused
	Row N %	Row N %	Row N %
q1 Q1: Developing brownfield sites" ... Would you select this option?	78.6%	17.1%	4.2%
q8 Q8: Developing more New Development Areas in the New Territories, such as those areas in the New Territories North that have development potential. ... Would you select this option?	78.4%	17.0%	4.6%
q7 Q7: Developing caverns and underground space to accommodate suitable government facilities. ... Would you select this option?	65.9%	29.3%	4.8%
Q9a1 Q9a1: Releasing the River Trade Terminal site in Tuen Mun West to accommodate industrial and brownfield-related operations. ... Would you select this option?	65.0%	26.4%	8.6%
Q2a1 Q2a1: Cooperating with the owners of private agricultural lands in the New Territories to develop those lands to provide more private and public housing units.... Would you select this option?	61.3%	34.3%	4.4%
q5 Q5: Reclaiming near-shore sites outside the Victoria Harbour. Would you select this option?	61.1%	35.7%	3.3%
q3 Q3: Changing the uses of sites held under Private Recreational Lease.... Would you select this option?	60.6%	35.7%	3.7%
q6 Q6: Constructing artificial islands in the waters between Hong Kong Island and Lantau Island to develop the "East Lantau Metropolis" as a new town and a core commercial district. ... Would you select this option?	58.3%	37.4%	4.2%
q10 Q10: Developing two pilot areas on the periphery of country parks of relatively low ecological and public enjoyment value in Tai Lam and Shui Chuen O respectively. ... Would you select this option?	52.7%	44.0%	3.3%
Q4a1 Q4a1: Relocating or consolidating land-extensive government recreational facilities such as sports grounds and recreational centres. ... Would you select this option?	23.3%	73.1%	3.7%

Frequencies

Q_group Q_group: Respondents by total amount of land in hectre they selected

	Frequency	Percent	Valid Percent	Cumulative Percent
Valid 1 less than 1200 ha	434	14.4	14.4	14.4
2 1200 ha or above	2577	85.6	85.6	100.0
Total	3011	100.0	100.0

Annex 2b: Tables for Options 1200+ Telephone Survey

Custom Tables: Q1 - Q10 sorted by descending order of "Yes%" (For those whose selected options that generated 1200 ha and above)

Q_group Q_group: Respondents by total amount of land in hectre they selected (1200 hectre or above)

	1 Yes	2 No	8 No comment / Didn't know / Hard to tell / Refused
	Row N %	Row N %	Row N %
q8 Q8: Developing more New Development Areas in the New Territories, such as those areas in the New Territories North that have development potential. ... Would you select this option?	88.0%	9.5%	2.4%
q1 Q1: Developing brownfield sites" ... Would you select this option?	82.5%	14.2%	3.3%
q5 Q5: Reclaiming near-shore sites outside the Victoria Harbour.Would you select this option?	68.4%	29.1%	2.5%
Q2a1 Q2a1: Cooperating with the owners of private agricultural lands in the New Territories to develop those lands to provide more private and public housing units.... Would you select this option?	68.0%	28.6%	3.4%
q7 Q7: Developing caverns and underground space to accommodate suitable government facilities. ... Would you select this option?	67.9%	27.8%	4.2%
q6 Q6: Constructing artificial islands in the waters between Hong Kong Island and Lantau Island to develop the "East Lantau Metropolis" as a new town and a core commercial district. ... Would you select this option?	67.8%	29.2%	3.0%
Q9a1 Q9a1: Releasing the River Trade Terminal site in Tuen Mun West to accommodate industrial and brownfield-related operations. ... Would you select this option?	67.7%	24.6%	7.7%
q3 Q3: Changing the uses of sites held under Private Recreational Lease.... Would you select this option?	61.8%	34.9%	3.3%
q10 Q10: Developing two pilot areas on the periphery of country parks of relatively low ecological and public enjoyment value in Tai Lam and Shui Chuen O respectively. ... Would you select this option?	57.4%	40.0%	2.6%
Q4a1 Q4a1: Relocating or consolidating land-extensive government recreational facilities such as sports grounds and recreational centres. ... Would you select this option?	24.0%	72.6%	3.5%